

CLASS OF 1878

Rutgers College

1917

31

CLASS OF 1878

Rutgers College

Rutgers university, New Brunswick, N.J.

HISTORY TO 1917

COMPILED BY

PROFESSOR LOUIS BEVIER

LD 4752

.6

878

GIFT
THE COLLEGE
JAN 29 1918

C
C
C
C
C
C
C

Classical Section

LOUIS BEVIER.

Bishop Place, New Brunswick, N. J.

Son of Louis Bevier, farmer, and Catherine Van Dyck. He is a direct descendant on his father's side, the seventh generation, of Louis Bevier, who came from France in 1675, and who was one of the twelve patentees who received from Governor Andros in 1677 a grant of land for the original Huguenot settlement in New Paltz, Ulster County, N. Y. He was born on April 22, 1857, at Marbletown, Ulster County, N. Y., on the farm which has belonged to his family since 1715. He received his preparation for college by private instruction at Marbletown and at Stone Ridge, N. Y. While in college he won a number of prizes, and in particular the intercollegiate prize in Greek in the year 1878. He graduated with highest scholarship honors. After graduation, he studied at Johns Hopkins University for three years, graduating in 1881 with the degree of Ph.D., and then spent several years in study abroad, at the Universities of Leipsig and Bonn, 1881-82, and at the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, 1883. Since 1883 his residence has been in New Brunswick. From 1883 to 1885 he was Instructor in French at Rutgers; Adjunct Professor of Modern Languages, 1885-90, Acting Professor of Latin, 1887-89; Professor of Modern Languages, 1890-93, and Professor of Greek, 1893 to the present time. He was secretary of the extension department of the college from 1892 to 1904, and has been Dean of the college since 1912. He is a lecturer on literary and educational subjects, was a member of the State Board of Education of New Jersey from 1901 to 1904, State Inspector of High Schools from 1904 to 1909, member of the State Council of Education of New Jersey (president 1916-17), member of the American Philological Association, member of the Modern Language Association of America, and of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. He is the author of a French Grammar, published in 1896, a Brief Greek Syntax, published in 1904, and of numerous monographs, and has contributed largely to periodicals. He is a member of the Reformed Church, and in politics is an Independent. On June 19, 1884, he married, at Yonkers, N. Y., May Dealing, daughter of Samuel Dealing and Margaret H. Ralph. His wife died on February 17, 1912. Their children are: Louis, born April 22, 1885; May Margaret (Wright), born November 27, 1886; and Elizabeth Ralph, born March 19, 1893.

HENRY JAMES BOGARDUS, M.D.

427 Bergen Ave., Jersey City, N. J.

Son of Alfred Bogardus and Harriet Knapp. He is a direct descendant on his father's side, the eighth generation, from Dominie Everardus Bogardus, the first Dutch clergyman on Manhattan Island, who came from Holland in 1630. He was born February 15, 1858, at Fishkill Landing, N. Y. He resided at Fishkill until 1868, at Yonkers, N. Y., from 1868 to 1881, at New York from 1881 to 1888, and at Jersey City, N. J., from 1888 to the present time. He was prepared for college at schools in Yonkers, and at the Rutgers Preparatory School. After graduation from college, he studied at the New Brunswick Theological Seminary, and was licensed by the Classis of Westminster in 1881. From 1881 to 1883 he studied at the University Medical College, New York, and was licensed to practice medicine in 1884. He was Resident House-Surgeon at the New York Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled from 1884 to 1887, and has been attending surgeon to the New York Orthopedic Hospital from 1887 to the present time. He is also Orthopedic Surgeon to the Christ and City Hospitals in Jersey City. He is a member of the American Medical Association, Hudson County Medical Society, New Jersey State Medical Society, Physicians and Surgeons Club, New York Academy of Medicine, New York Orthopedic Club, and the Holland Society. He is consulting surgeon to the New Jersey Orthopedic Hospital. He is a member of the Reformed Church, and in politics is a Republican. On December 25, 1884, he married, at Yonkers, N. Y., Effie E. Luce, of New Vineyard, Maine, daughter of Justin Luce and Elizabeth A. Hilman. Their children are: Rollins, born December 8, 1885; Florence E., born October 8, 1881; and Henry Luce, born December 20, 1894.

FREDERICK JOSEPH COLLIER.

609-611 Warren St., Hudson, N. Y.

Son of Joseph A. Collier, a minister of the Reformed Church, and of Eliza A. Rowley. He is of Huguenot and English descent. He was born on September 23, 1856, at Geneva, N. Y. His preparation for college was received in private schools of Kingston, N. Y., and Hudson, N. Y. While in college he received several prizes for oratory and essays, and was valedictorian of the class on graduation. He is a member of the Delta Phi Fraternity. After graduation he studied law in the office of Isaac N. Collier, Surrogate of Columbia County, and acted as Clerk of the Surrogate Court. He was admitted to the Bar at Ithaca, N. Y., in May, 1880. He has served as president of the Board of Education of Hudson, N. Y., is director of several corporations, and was a member of the Hudson-Fulton Celebration Committee. He is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. He was elected a trustee of Rutgers College in 1891, and is also a trustee of the Hudson Orphan and Relief Association. He is a member of the Reformed Church, and in politics is a Republican. On June 10, 1884, he married Margaret Mulford, daughter of James Mulford and Mary Du Bois. He is the author of many addresses on topics of current interest. He is senior member of the law firm of Collier, Browning & Moy, with offices in Hudson, N. Y.

EVERETT MALLORY CULVER.

202 West 86th St., New York, N. Y.

After graduation from college, he studied medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York, and graduated in 1881. He then continued his studies in Berlin, returning to New York in 1884. Since that time he has practiced as a surgeon in New York City.

JOHN EDWARD ELMENDORF.

750 Broad St., Newark, N. J.

Son of John Crooke Elmendorf, Prosecutor of Pleas, U. S. Register in Bankruptcy, Treasurer of Rutgers College for thirty-three years, and Maria Louise Frelinghuysen. His maternal grandfather, Frederick Frelinghuysen, was a general in the Revolutionary Army, and a U. S. Senator, and his great-uncle, Theodore Frelinghuysen, was a candidate for Vice President of the United States with Henry Clay, and later was President of Rutgers College. He was born on August 3, 1858, at New Brunswick, N. J., and was prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School. While in college he won the Brodhead Classical Prize, and the prize for Junior Exhibition in 1877. He is a member of the Delta Phi Fraternity, and of Phi Beta Kappa Society. After graduation, he studied law in the offices of his father, and of Hon. A. V. Schenck of New Brunswick. He also continued his work at Rutgers, receiving the degrees of M.A. and Bachelor of Philosophy in 1881. In 1882 he was admitted to the Bar as attorney in New Jersey, and has since been admitted as counsellor in New York and New Jersey. His residence until 1916 was in New Brunswick. He has held the following positions: Master of Chancery in New Jersey, member of the Middlesex County Board of Education, member and president of the Board of Water Commissioners of New Brunswick, member and president of the Board of Excise Commissioners of New Brunswick, member of the Board of Commissioners for the Adjustment of Taxes. He has been a member of the Humane Society of New Brunswick, the Union Club of New Brunswick, and a trustee of the First Presbyterian Church of New Brunswick. In politics he is a Republican. On August 17, 1887, he married Helen Aline Decker, daughter of Lionel David Decker and Mary E. Decker. Their children are Louise Frelinghuysen, Dumont Frelinghuysen, and John Edward, Jr. His two sons are graduates of Rutgers.

NICOLL FLOYD ELMENDORF.

Died November 19, 1890.

Son of the Rev. Dr. John Elmendorf of the Collegiate Reformed Church of Harlem. He was born at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1857. After graduation from college he studied law with Judge Nelson of Poughkeepsie, and was admitted to the Bar. He was connected for some time with the law firm of Tenbroeck & Van Orden in New York City, but before his death he built up a large practice of his own in New York. He died in 1890.

CHARLES EVERETT.

Belmar, N. J.

Son of Charles Randall Everett and Julia Ainse Hooper. He was born near Princeton, N. J., May 19, 1854. He resided at Dayton, N. J., and was prepared for college for three years in the Brainard Institute and for one year in the Rutgers Preparatory School. He graduated in 1878, and was elected to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa Society. After graduation he attended the Princeton Theological Seminary, and was licensed, April, 1880, at the Presbytery meeting in Allentown, N. J. He was ordained by the Monmouth Presbytery, and installed, on June 14, 1881, as pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Englishtown. On February 15, 1893, he was installed as pastor of the Belmar Presbyterian Church. He has been a member of Presbytery, a Moderator of vacant churches, Moderator of the Monmouth Presbytery, a delegate to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. In politics he is a Republican. He married, September 8, 1881, Sarah Ella Polhemus, of Middlebush, N. J., daughter of Tunis Du Bois Polhemus and Elizabeth Hoagland. His son, Ainslie, born December 10, 1882, entered Rutgers with the class of 1905, but died April 27, 1903, in his sophomore year. His brother-in-law, Rev. C. H. Polhemus, graduated from Rutgers in the class of 1877.

JOHN BLAIR GIBBS.

Died June 12, 1898.

Son of Alfred Gibbs, Major in the 7th U. S. Cavalry, Brevet-Major-General, of the class of 1846 in the United States Military Academy at West Point, who served in the Mexican, Indian, and Civil wars, and of Peggy Tonshee Blair. On his father's side he was of New England Colonial stock, numbering among his ancestors George Gibbs, geologist, Oliver Wolcott, Secretary of the Treasury, and Oliver Wolcott, Governor of Connecticut and signer of the Declaration of Independence. On his mother's side he was of Virginia Colonial stock, and took his name from the Rev. John Blair, Professor of Theology in the College of New Jersey. He was born September 25, 1858, at Richmond, Va. In his boyhood he resided at Fort Union and Albuquerque, New Mexico, Fort Riley and Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, New York City, and New Brunswick. He was prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School. He was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. After graduation in 1878, he studied medicine in the University of Pennsylvania, receiving his degree of M.D. in 1881, and continued his medical studies at the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Columbia, and also in Vienna. He practiced surgery in New York City until 1898, when he volunteered for service in the Spanish-American War, and was appointed Assistant Surgeon in the United States Navy. He was killed in action at Guantanamo Bay, June 12, 1898. During his residence in New York City he was house physician of the Lebanon and other hospitals, and a member of the University Club. He was not married.

SEI-ICHI KUDO.

Died December 15, 1906.

He was born in Japan, and came to the United States in 1872, at which time he could neither speak nor understand English. He studied English and finished his preparation for college in Millstone, N. J., living in the home of Rev. E. T. Corwin. He entered college in 1874. He was a member of the Philoclean Literary Society, and ranked high in scholarship standing, being elected to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa Society. After graduation, he continued his studies at Rutgers, receiving the degree of A.M. in 1881. He then returned to Japan, and from 1881 to 1883 was Professor of Physics in Sapporo Agricultural College. He later became Professor of Chemistry and Physics in the school of the American Episcopal Mission in Tokyo. He was lecturer on educational subjects in Japan, and was an author. At one time he assisted Dr. David Murray in his work in Japan. He was married. He died in Tokyo in 1906.

GEORGE LE FEVRE.

Forest Glen, N. Y.

Son of Abraham Le Fevre, farmer, and Margaret Du Bois Elting. He was born at Forest Glen, N. Y., April 24, 1856. He was prepared for college at the New Paltz Academy and entered Rutgers College in 1874. After graduation, he studied in the New Brunswick Theological Seminary, was licensed by the Classis of Kingston, N. Y., in 1881, and ordained by the Classis of Hudson, N. Y., in 1882. He was pastor of the Livingston Memorial Church at Linlithgo, N. Y., from 1882 to 1886, and of the Presbyterian Church at Ancram Lead Mines, N. Y., from 1886 to 1897. Since then he has been a minister without charge in the Presbyterian Church. He is independent in politics. On April 28, 1886, he married, at Germantown, N. Y., Sarah Miller, daughter of the Hon. Amos Miller. They have no children. His brother, Solomon Le Fevre, graduated from Rutgers in 1882.

WILLIAM BURNHAM MARSHALL.

Died September 16, 1881.

Son of Arthur Ward Marshall, teacher, and Caroline Ward Trumbull. His mother was a great-granddaughter of Jonathan Trumbull, Colonial Governor of Connecticut, and the original "Brother Jonathan," friend and advisor of Washington; also a granddaughter of Major Jeremiah Bruen, one of Washington's aides at Valley Forge. He was born on April 10, 1858, at Valparaiso, Chili, and resided later at Kingston, N. Y., New Brunswick, N. J., and Metuchen, N. J. He was prepared for college by his father, together with one year's private instruction at Elizabeth, N. J. He entered college in 1874, and maintained a high grade of scholarship. After graduation he became a teacher in the New Brunswick High School, residing in Metuchen, and taught for three years. In July, 1881, he took a position in the Edison lamp factory at Menlo Park, which he held until shortly before his death, in September, 1881. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and in politics was a Republican. His avocation was nature study. Two brothers, John Trumbull Marshall of the class of '81, and David Trumbull Marshall of the class of '87, are alumni of Rutgers. He was unmarried. His short career as a teacher was very successful, and his promise of success in business was very great.

JOHN HULL McLEAN.

Deceased.

After graduation from college he studied law in the Columbia Law School and graduated in 1881. He later turned his attention to farming, and resided on the Hull farm in Eatontown, N. J.

OTTO EMIL MEYER.

Alstead Centre, N. H.

Son of Rev. Carl Meyer, D.D., Professor of Modern Languages and Literature in Rutgers College from 1869 to 1901, and Augusta Michaelis. He was born at Homburg, Germany, September 17, 1858. He resided at Homburg and at Wernigerode, Germany, until his family removed to America. His early education was received in Germany, and later for four years in the Rutgers Preparatory School. He entered college in September, 1874. After graduation he engaged in shipping and in the wall-paper business. On June 7, 1904, he married Amelia McIntosh, daughter of Brigadier-General John B. McIntosh, and of Amelia Stout.

They have no children. He resided in New Brunswick until 1910, and since then, having retired from business, at Alstead Centre, N. H. He is a member of the Reformed Church, and is a Republican in politics. His favorite recreations are hunting and fishing. His older brother, Charles, graduated in the class of 1874.

HENRY MERRILL ORNE.

215 West 23d St., New York City.

Son of Henry Augustus Orne, a lawyer, and Anna Goodman Merrill. He was born in Memphis, Tenn., January 25, 1859. He resided later in Pittsfield, Mass., Doylestown, Pa., Allentown, Pa., and New Brunswick, N. J. He was prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School. He entered college in 1874, was a member of the Beta Theta Pi Fraternity, and at graduation was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa Society. After leaving college he went into business, residing in New York, Brooklyn, Elizabeth, N. J., Newark, N. J., and Ridgewood, N. J. In 1889 he became Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association in New York City, and has held that position to the present time. He is a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and in politics is a Republican. His favorite sport is golf. On June 10, 1889, he married Harriet Josephine Orvis, daughter of Joseph Upham Orvis and Elizabeth Mazro. Their children are: Beatrice, born 1894, died 1898, and Evelyn, born April 5, 1900.

JAMES HENRY OWENS.

Macon, Ga.

Son of Henry Macy Owens and Mary Elizabeth Van Wyck. He was born January 4, 1857, at Hyde Park, Dutchess County, N. Y., and later resided at Pleasant Valley, N. Y., and at Yonkers, N. Y. He was prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School, and entered in 1874. He is a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity. After graduation he studied in the New Brunswick Theological Seminary; was licensed by the Classis of Westchester in 1881; ordained at Fairfield, Essex County, N. J., by the Classis of Passaic, June 15, 1881. He has been in active work as a pastor in the Reformed Church from 1881 until 1886, and since then in the Presbyterian Church: in Fairfield, N. J., 1881-84; in Bushnell, Ill., 1884-86; in Perth Amboy, N. J., 1886-93; in Paterson, N. J., 1894-1913; in Macon, Ga., 1913 to the present time. In 1907 he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Lafayette College. In politics he is a Republican. On June 1, 1881, he was married, at Jamesburg, N. J., to Letitia Kirkpatrick Van Nuis. Their children are: Benjamin, born September 16, 1883; Helen, born December 19, 1886; and Edwin, born March 16, 1889.

CORTLANDT PARKER, JR.

Newark, N. J.

Son of Hon. Cortlandt Parker of the class of 1836, a prominent and distinguished advocate at the Bar of the State for over fifty years, and of Elizabeth Wolcott Stites. He was born in Newark, N. J., August 17, 1857; attended the Newark Academy, St. Mark's School, Southboro, Mass., and the Pingry School, Elizabeth, N. J. In college he won the gold medal at the Sophomore Exhibition. He is a member of the Zeta Psi Fraternity. After graduation he studied law in the Columbia Law School, taking the degree of LL.B. in 1881. He was admitted to the Bar in June, 1881, and practiced with the firm of A. Wayne Parker. He resides in Newark, N. J. He served for a short time as United States District Attorney. He is a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and in politics is a Republican. His brother, General James Parker, was a member of the class of 1874 until he entered the United States Military Academy at West Point.

WILLIAM HENRY SCUDDER.

Died May 26, 1911.

Son of Rev. Jared W. Scudder, D.D., and of Julia Clayton. He was born at Vellore, India, on February 10, 1857. While in college he was a member of the college crew, of the college baseball team, of the Glee Club, and was Business Manager of the Targum Association. He was a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity. After graduation he entered the New Brunswick Theological Seminary, graduating in 1882. From 1882 to 1884 he was pastor of the Grove Reformed Church of New Durham, N. J. He then entered the Congregational ministry, and had the following charges: Assistant, Plymouth Church, Chicago, Ill., 1884-85; First Congregational Church, Aurora, Ill., 1885-87; Plymouth Church, San Francisco, Cal., 1887-90; First Congregational Church, Norwich, N. Y., 1891-96; First Congregational Church, Tacoma, Wash., 1896-99; Park Church, Berkeley, Cal., 1901-06; and First Congregational Church, Rio Vista, Cal., 1906-10. In 1910 he retired on account of ill health. On September 27, 1882, he married, at Clifton, Staten Island, N. Y., Mary B. Hedley, daughter of John H. Hedley and Annie Sturges. They had ten children, eight of whom are living. He died at Petaluma, Cal., in 1911.

JOHN LAWSON SENIOR.

Waverly, Kansas.

Son of George Senior, a merchant, and Mary Ann Lawson. He was born on November 7, 1854, in Montgomery, Orange County, N. Y., and was prepared for college in the schools of that place. While in college he became a member of the Alpha Sigma Chi, later the Beta Theta Pi Fraternity. He studied law after graduation, in Goshen, N. Y., and in Montgomery, N. Y., and in 1880 was admitted to the Bar at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. In the same year he went to Waverly, Kans., where his residence has been from that year to the present time. In 1882 he engaged in the banking business, opening the first bank in Waverly. From 1889 to 1893 he served in the State Senate of the 15th Senatorial District. He has served five terms as Mayor of Waverly, and has been for twenty-five years a member of the Board of Education of that place. He is now cashier of the Commercial State Bank of Waverly. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and is a Republican "stand patter" in politics. On January 31, 1883, he married, at Waverly, Kans., Anna C. Egan, daughter of Jerome and Lucy Egan. Their children are: Renwick Joseph, born November 14, 1884; Lucy, born January 31, 1886; John Garret, born August 1, 1888; Mary Bella, born October 14, 1889; Lawson Jerome, born October 7, 1899 (died June 17, 1900); and Marguerite Honore, born February 14, 1902.

GEORGE EDWARD STUBBS.

121 W. 91st St., New York City.

Son of Rev. Alfred Stubbs, S.T.D. (Columbia), a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church, a graduate of Yale and member of the Skull and Bones Society, and of Emily Houghton. He was born April 3, 1857, in New Brunswick, N. J. His early life was passed in Princeton, N. J., and in New York City. He was prepared for college in Burlington College (N. J.), two years; Princeton Preparatory School two years, and Keble Hall, New York City, two years. He entered college in 1874. He is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. After graduation he became a professional organist and choirmaster, at Baltimore, Md., three years, at Middletown, Conn., and afterwards in New York City. He was organist and choirmaster at St. James' Church, New York, from 1886 to 1892, instructor in Ecclesiastical Music in the General Theological Seminary, 1889 to 1903, and organist and choirmaster at St. Agnes' Chapel, Trinity Parish, from 1892 to the present time. In 1905 he received the degree of Doctor of Music from the University of the South. He is a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church. His favorite sports are boating, hunting, golf, and tennis. On July 24, 1879, he married Maude Le Jeune. Their children are: Maude Le Jeune, born May 16, 1880; Eric Walter, born January 11, 1887; Erling Aubrey, born November, 1889; and Violet Houghton, born November 23, 1894. His relatives among the alumni of Rutgers are Alfred H. Stubbs '61, Francis H. Stubbs '66, and Roland H. Stubbs '76. He is the author of "Practical Hints on the Training of Choir Boys," 1888, Novello & Co., London; "The Choir Service Book," H. W. Gray Co., New York, 1902; "The Church Service Book," H. W. Gray Co., New York, 1906; "The Counter Tenor Voice," H. W. Gray Co., New York, 1908, and various essays on church music.

EGBERT TEARS.

Died January 27, 1880.

He was born at Montgomery, N. Y., on March 22, 1856. While in college he held a number of offices, and was especially prominent in oratory, being Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Orator. He was a member of the Philoclean Society and of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity. After graduation he entered the New Brunswick Theological Seminary, but was forced to give up his studies on account of ill health. He spent part of 1879 in Texas for his health, and went from there to St. Paul, Minn., where he died on January 27, 1880.

HOWARD DAVIDSON TERHUNE.

Hackensack, N. J.

Son of John Terhune, bookseller and publisher in New Brunswick, N. J., and of Mary J. Davidson. His paternal grandfather was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, and his father in the War of 1812. He was born at New Brunswick, N. J., December 16, 1859, and was prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School. After graduation he studied law at the Columbia Law School, 1880 and 1881, and at the office of Cortlandt and R. Wayne Parker, Newark, N. J., and was licensed as attorney at Trenton in November, 1881. He practiced law from 1882 to 1884, when he went into the banking business. He has been cashier of the Hackensack National Bank from 1889 to the present time. He is president of the Hackensack Land Company, a director of the Hackensack National Bank, of the Hackensack Trust Company, and of the Hackensack River Brick Company, a governor of the Hackensack Club, and vice president of the Oritani Field Club. He resided at New Brunswick till 1882; at Paterson, 1882-84; at Matawan, 1884-89; and at Hackensack from 1889 to the present time. In politics he is an Independent. His favorite sport is baseball. On December 21, 1881, he married Jennie M. Cadmus, daughter of Cornelius J. Cadmus and Rachel Ackerman. They have two children: John Creswell Terhune, born March 23, 1886, and Elizabeth Terhune, born October 5, 1892. He has two nephews and one grand-nephew among the alumni of Rutgers.

JOHN VAN DER POEL, M.D.

56 W. 52d St., New York City.

Son of Samuel Oakley Van der Poel, M.D., LL.D., president of the Medical Society of the State of New York 1879, president of the New York County Medical Society 1880, Health Officer of the Port of New York 1872-80, and of Gertrude Lansing Wendell, daughter of Peter Wendell, M.D., of Albany, N. Y., Chancellor of the Regents of the University of the State of New York, 1840-49. On his father's side he was descended from Wynant Gerritse Van der Poel, who came from Dordrecht, Holland, in 1650. He was born in Albany, N. Y., February 20, 1858, and later resided for a time at Quarantine, Staten Island, N. Y. He was prepared for college at the Albany Boys' Academy, and later at a private school on Staten Island, and Rutgers Preparatory School. During his college course he was editor of the Targum, and also Senior Class president. After graduation he studied medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia, receiving the degree of M.D. in 1881; was interne in the New York Hospital, and later in the Mount Sinai Hospital, N. Y., and continued his studies in Leipsic, Berlin, and Vienna during 1883 and 1884. On returning from Europe he took up the practice of medicine in New York City. He has served as clinical lecturer on genito-urinary diseases in New York University and Bellevue Medical College, 1900-12; Assistant Attending Surgeon Genito-Urinary Department, Bellevue Hospital, 1907-12; Chairman of the New York Academy of Medicine, Genito-Urinary Section, 1909-10; President of the American Association of Genito-Urinary Surgeons, and Secretary of L'Association Internationale d'Urologie, 1908 to the present time. He was president in 1906 of the Alumni Association of the New York Hospital. He is a member of the Reformed Church, and is a Republican. He is unmarried. Two brothers, Samuel Oakley Van der Poel, M.D., '73, and Herman Wendell Van der Poel '77, graduated from Rutgers. He is the author of two medical treatises on subjects connected with his specialty, published in 1902 and 1906 by William Wood & Co., and of numerous articles published in medical journals.

JOHN SMALLEY LETSON VAN DEVENTER.

Died March 21, 1889.

Son of John Van Deventer. He was born at New Brunswick, N. J., in 1859. While in college he was a member of the Peithessophian Literary Society and of his class baseball team. After graduation in 1878, he studied medicine, first with Dr. Henry R. Baldwin of New Brunswick, and later at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York City, where he received the degree of M.D. in 1880. He then returned to New Brunswick and began the practice of medicine. He later removed to Jersey City, N. J., and had secured a large practice, when ill health made it necessary for him to move to Denver, Col., where he died in 1889. His widow, formerly Eva Dawson of Roxborough, Pa., and one child survive him.

HENRY CONE VAN DOLSEN.

Died in 1889.

He was born in 1857. While in college he was a member of the Peithessophian Literary Society, secretary of the Senior class, and a director of the Targum Association. After graduation he studied at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York City, receiving the degree of M.D. in 1882. He practiced medicine in New York from 1882 until his death in 1889.

JONAH VAUGHAN.

Died in 1913.

Son of Z. Morton Vaughan, a farmer and a carpenter, twice a State representative, and once a Senator in Maine, and of Clarissa McLean. On his paternal side he came of old New England stock—the first settler, George Vaughan, came to this country about 1640, and Jabez Vaughan, his grandson, was an officer in the Revolution. He was born April 30, 1851, in New Vineyard, Me. He was prepared for college at the local high school and at the Rutgers Preparatory School. He entered college in 1874, and after graduation studied in the New Brunswick Theological Seminary. He was ordained in 1881 by the Classis of New Brunswick, and was minister of the Franklin Furnace Reformed Church from 1881 to 1885; at Orvasco, N. Y., from 1885 to 1891; at Livingston, N. Y., from 1891 to 1902; and at Belfast, Me., from 1902 to 1913. In politics he was a Republican. His avocation was farming. He was twice married: on September 3, 1885, at Athens, N. Y., to Anna E. Van Hoesen; and on August 28, 1895, to Emma E. Geralsek. By his first wife he had two children: Agnes B., born October 15, 1886, and Julia K., born July 7, 1889. His brother, the Rev. William Vaughan, graduated from Rutgers in the year 1880.

WILLIAM WALLACE ANDERSON.

762 Avenue A, Bayonne, N. J.

After leaving college he studied law, and has practiced in Bayonne, N. J.

JOHN HENRY BANTA.

Died August 20, 1907.

Son of John Richard Banta and of Mary Ann Cadmus. He was born at Dundee Lake, Bergen County, N. J., on September 27, 1853. He remained in college for two years, and after leaving in 1876 studied at the Bellevue Medical College in New York City, where he graduated in 1879 with the degree of M.D. In 1880 he began to practice his profession in Paterson, N. J., where he continued until his death. He was for a long time a member of the United States Pension Board for the district. He was connected with the Prudential Life Insurance Company for twenty-seven years, and for several years was chief medical examiner. He was also a member of the Paterson Board of Health. On September 1, 1881, he married Charlotte S. Dunning. His widow and two sons survive him. He died August 20, 1907.

JOHN BLOOMFIELD BEEKMAN, M.D.

Bedminster, N. J.

Son of John Beekman, a farmer, and Fannie A. Stiger. He was born January 5, 1854, at North Branch, N. J. He was prepared for college at the Somerset Classical Institute at Somerville, N. J. He remained in college one year and was a member of the Alpha Sigma Chi Fraternity. He attended the Medical School of the New York University 1879-1881, and received the degree of M.D. in 1881. He has practiced medicine at North Branch, 1881-84, at Pluckamin 1884-1902, and at Bedminster from 1902 to the present time. He has been vice president of the Somerset County District Medical Society (1906), a member of the American Medical Association since 1907. He is a member of the Reformed Church, and is a Republican. On June 20, 1882, he married, at North Branch, N. J., Marie Ludlow Doolittle, daughter of Rev. P. M. Doolittle, D.D., and Anna Ludlow. Their children are: Effie Bloomfield, born June 15, 1889; Anna Doolittle, born July 14, 1893; and Henry M., born October 31, 1894. His brother, Henry M. T. Beekman '77, is a graduate of the college.

GARRET STORY CONOVER.

Deceased.

After leaving college he engaged in business in New Brunswick.

JOHN GOLDEN DORRANCE, M.D.

549 Riverside Drive, New York City.

Son of John Dorrance, a business man, and Rhoda Schanck Golden. Born at Carbondale, Pa., April 14, 1856, and later resided at Freehold, N. J. He was prepared for college at the Freehold Institute, and by private tutors. He entered college in 1874, distinguished himself for excellence in declamation and oratory, and was a member of the Chi Phi Fraternity. He left college at the end of the Sophomore year, to enter the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia, and graduated with the degree of M.D. in 1879. He resided at Nyack, N. Y., from 1880 to 1900; in Yonkers from 1900 to 1910; and since that date in New York City. After a few years of practice he abandoned medicine and engaged in the organization and management of insurance companies. He is now president of the Baltic Trading Co., and secretary of the American Planograph Co. He was for several years president of the Nyack Country Club. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and is a Republican. His avocation is gardening and floriculture. On November 10, 1880, he married Frances Allaire Hegeman, daughter of Rev. Charles S. Hegeman, D.D., and Mary Voorhees. They have one child, Frances E. Dorrance, born November 11, 1890. His brother, Charles P. Dorrance '73, and his brother-in-law, Rev. Asher Anderson, D.D., '70, are graduates of Rutgers.

WILLIAM EDWARDS FERGUSON.

Deceased.

He was a real estate agent in New York City.

FREDERICK FITCH FOLGER, JR.

Died February 25, 1883.

He entered college in 1874. He was president of the Freshman class, a member of the Philoclean Society, a director of the Rutgers College Boating Association, and a member of the Delta Phi Fraternity. After leaving college in 1876, he was a bookkeeper by profession. He died suddenly on February 25, 1883, at Hudson, N. Y.

JOHN ADAM FRECH.

Somerville, N. J.

Son of George M. Frech, lumber merchant, township committeeman and school trustee, and of Barbara Heim. His parents were Germans. He was born July 3, 1856, at Annandale, N. J. He was prepared for college by Dr. Cornell of Somerville, and O. H. Hoffman of Lebanon, N. J. After two years in college he studied law and was admitted to the Bar in 1880. Since then he has resided and practiced law in Somerville. He has been a member of the County Counsel for twenty-seven years. In politics he is a Democrat. On July 25, 1908, he married, at Philadelphia, Pa., Elizabeth Creveling, widow of D. E. Hoffman, and daughter of G. V. Creveling, of Annandale, N. J. They have no children.

RICHARD WRIGHT HERBERT.

Wickatunk, N. J.

Son of John W. Herbert, farmer and business man, Judge of County Court, Chairman of County Board of Assessors for thirty years, and Agnes D. Wright. He was born August 27, 1859, at Wickatunk, N. J., and was prepared for college at Matawan, Freehold, and at the Rutgers

Preparatory School. After one year in college, where he distinguished himself as a sprinter and also in football, he returned to Wickatunk and devoted himself to farming and public life. He was a member of the County Tax Board for ten years, was a State Commissioner at the St. Louis, the Jamestown, and the Seattle Expositions, represented the State at international tax conferences at Milwaukee, Denver, San Francisco, etc. He is a member of the Reformed Church, and in politics is a Republican. His favorite sport is roque, in which he held the championship for two years. He is unmarried. His brother, John W. Herbert '72, is an alumnus and a trustee of the college.

AUGUSTUS MANNING PRICE.

Brooklyn, N. Y.

Son of George Townley Price, a merchant, and of Sarah Maria Conover. He was born in New Brunswick, N. J., November 11, 1856, and resided later at Red Bank and Freehold. He was prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School. After two years in college he entered the law office of Mirabeau L. Towns, and was admitted to the Bar in Brooklyn in 1879. He practiced law at Riverhead, Long Island, for some years, and then in Brooklyn from 1884 to the present time. He is a member of the Congregational Church, and has been a trustee of the Lewis Avenue Congregational Church of Brooklyn. On December 27, 1881, he married, at Riverhead, Long Island, Isabelle Graham Edwards, daughter of George T. Edwards. They have no children. His brother, William H. Price of '76, is a graduate of Rutgers.

REV. DAVID H. SCHOCK.

Pitman, N. J.

Son of Rev. Edward Scock and Katharine Lindemuth. He was born February 13, 1840, at Germantown, Pa., and was prepared for college at Pennington Seminary. He had previously studied at the Drew Theological Seminary, and was licensed at Burlington, N. J., in 1867. After a year and a half at college, he resumed his work as a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, holding charges: in Bridgeton, N. J., three years; Trenton, four years; Asbury Park, three years; Camden, one year; Merchantville, two years; Philadelphia, four years; Island Heights, N. J., five years; Englishtown, N. J., two years; Linnwood, N. J., four years; Pitman, N. J., nine years. In 1881 he received the honorary degree of A.M. from Dickinson College. He has been secretary and superintendent of the New Jersey Conference Camp Meeting Association since 1897. In politics he is a Republican. On December 13, 1866, he married, at Linnwood, N. J., Susan E. Risley, daughter of Samuel R. Risley. They have three children: Julia R., Edson B., and Josephine T. He is the author of a volume of poems.

JACOB WINFRED VAN KEUREN.

Deceased.

He entered college in 1874, but did not graduate, leaving in 1876. He was a bookkeeper by profession, and his residence was in Utica, N. Y.

VANDERBILT SPADER VOORHEES.

New Brunswick, N. J.

Son of Charles H. Voorhees, M.D., County Physician for sixteen years, surgeon in the Union Army 1862-65, president of the Middlesex County Medical Society, and of Charlotte Bournonville, daughter of Antoine Bournonville, M.D., a distinguished French physician residing in Philadelphia. He was born September 7, 1858, in New Brunswick, N. J. Prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School. After one year in college he went into business. He resided in New York City from 1880 to 1887, and in New Brunswick from 1887 to the present time. He is president of the Voorhees Realty Company, New Brunswick, N. J. As president of the Elks' Building Corporation he laid the cornerstone of the Elks' Home, New Brunswick, in 1905. He is prominently connected with the New Brunswick Gun Club, the New Brunswick Boat Club, the New Brunswick Lodge, 324, B. P. O. Elks, and a member of the Middlesex Automobile Club. He is a Democrat. His favorite sports are fishing, hunting, boating, and motoring. On June 7, 1905, he married, at South Amboy, N. J., Rachel A. Seward, daughter of Benjamin Seward, nephew of William H. Seward, Secretary of State under Abraham Lincoln. They have no children. His brother, Louis A. Voorhees '85, is a graduate of Rutgers.

PETER DUMONT WHITENACK.

Died March 25, 1901.

Son of Abraham C. Whitenack. He entered college in 1874, but was obliged to leave in 1876 on account of ill health. He was a member of the Philoclean Literary Society. He died in Somerville, N. J., in 1901.

Scientific Section

JOHN BISHOP.

Bishop Place, New Brunswick, N. J.

Son of John Bishop and Garetta T. Cowenhoven. He was born in New Brunswick, N. J., on February 2, 1857, and was prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School. While in college he was a member of his class crew, a director of the Rutgers Boating Association, a member of the college baseball team, a director of the Football Association, and a member of the college football team. He was also a director of the Rutgers College Athletic Association. After graduation he studied law in the office of Abraham V. Schenck, in New Brunswick, N. J., from 1879 to 1882, and was admitted to the bar in 1882. From 1884 to 1901 he practiced law in Kansas City, Missouri. In 1901 he returned to New Jersey, and was admitted as counsellor at law. From 1901 to the present time he has practiced law in Newark, N. J. In politics he is a Democrat. He is unmarried.

EDWARD DURYEE.

122 S. Occidental Boulevard, Los Angeles, Cal.

Son of George Duryee, M.D., and of Mary E. Mathews. He was born in Warsaw, Wyoming County, N. Y., June 1, 1858. He lived later in Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y., Rahway, N. J., and New York City. He was prepared for college in schools of New York and Rahway. He entered the Sophomore class in 1875, and graduated as fourth honor man in his class. After graduation he held the position of chemist for smelting companies in New Jersey, New Mexico, and Colorado. He then became Assistant General Secretary for the New York Y. M. C. A., and later General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., first at Auburn, then at Newburyport, Mass. In the following years he became chemist for the California Portland Cement Company, cement expert for the U. S. Reclamation Service, and cement expert for the Los Angeles Aqueduct. For a number of years he has been manager of the Rex Plaster Company, manufacturers of gypsum and magnesite plasters, at Los Angeles. He has received the degree of C.E. at Rutgers. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and in politics is a Progressive. He was married in 1887, at Newburyport, Mass, to Annie P. Safford, daughter of Samuel H. Safford and Lucretia B. Safford. He has published numerous technical papers in engineering journals of New York, Chicago, and California. He has designed and built several cement factories. He is the inventor of an improved hydraulic cement, a machine for making continuous reinforced pipe, and a process for making a retarder for plaster.

HENRY MONMOUTH HERBERT.

Bound Brook, N. J.

He was born in the year 1857. After graduation from college he was for five years a member of the Engineer's Corps of the United States Army, engaged in river and harbor work. For the five years following he was resident engineer of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, in charge of location construction and maintenance of way. He was for some time a member of the State Board of Health of New Jersey, and was Chief of the Division of Sewerage and Water Supplies. He has now been occupied for a number of years with a general engineering practice, including chiefly the designing, locating, and constructing of steam and electric railways, sewerage systems, disposal plants, water works, and water filters. His residence is in Bound Brook, N. J.

WALTER LIVINGSTON LAWRENCE.

Scranton, Pa.

Son of Thomas Lawrence, a business man of Sussex County, N. J., who was a State Senator, a member of the State Board of Education, and of the State Board of Visitors of the Rutgers Scientific School, and of Margaret Rembert Taylor. He was born at Hamburg, Sussex County, N. J., March 10, 1857. He graduated from college with the third honor. He is a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity. After leaving college he became a mining engineer at Pompton, N. J., one year; Walwayande, N. J., 1879-1880; New Hamburg, N. J., 1880-1883; Burden, N. Y., 1883-1886, and Scranton, Pa., 1886 to the present time. He has held the positions of assistant superintendent, Hudson River Ore and Iron Co., secretary-treasurer of the Northern Coal and Iron Co., and real estate agent, of the Delaware & Hudson Co. He is a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and in politics is a Republican. His chief amusement is growing flowers. On June 6, 1883, he married Laura Lovell Brown, daughter of John H. Brown and Lucy Lovell, at Wortendyke, N. J. Their children are: Jeannette Wilson, born August 3, 1884; Lovell, born December 2, 1887; and Morris, born February 27, 1897.

FRANKLIN TOWNSEND LENT.

Sterling, Mass.

Son of David B. Lent and Louise M. Lent. He was born at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., on March 3, 1855, and was prepared for college at the Poughkeepsie Military Institute. While in college he was coach for the crew, and a member of the Delta Phi Fraternity, and at graduation was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa Society. After graduation he studied architure for two years in New York City. Since 1883 he has lived at Colorado Springs, Cranford, N. J., Boston, Thousand Islands, N. Y., Leominster, Mass., and since 1914 at Thousand Islands. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and is a Republican in politics. He is a Fellow Royal of the Canadian Institute of Architecture. His avocation is yachting. In 1902 he married Fannie Dean, at Gananogue, Ontario. They have one child, Dean Lent, born May 22, 1907. He is the author of "Sound Sense in Suburban Architecture," published in 1902, "Sensible Suburban Residences," 1903, and "Suburban Homes and Camps," 1905, all three books being published by the O. T. Comstock Company, of New York.

ROBERT WOODWORTH PRENTISS.

Died, April, 1913.

Son of Charles Gould Prentiss, a bookkeeper, and Sarah Elizabeth Arnold. Through the Gould family he was related to Charles Sumner. He was born in Brighton, Mass., on January 30, 1857. He resided in his boyhood in New York City, and for two years attended a Brooklyn High School. His father removed to New Brunswick in 1872, and he took his last two years of preparation for college in the New Brunswick High School. He distinguished himself in college for scholarship, particularly in Mathematics. He graduated second honor man in his class, and was elected a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. As an undergraduate he was editor of the Targum and of the Scarlet Letter, a member of the varsity baseball team, and of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity. After graduation he specialized in Mathematics at the Johns Hopkins University for three years. From 1881 to 1891 he was assistant to Prof. Simon Newcomb in the Nautical Almanac Service, and professor of Physics in the Corcoran Scientific School from 1888 to 1891. From 1891 to the time of his death he was Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy at Rutgers. He held many official positions in learned and philanthropic societies. He was an active member of the Baptist Church, both in Washington and in New Brunswick, and superintendent of the Sunday School in Washington from 1886 to 1891. In politics he was a Republican. His amusements were chiefly tennis and roque. On December 17, 1885, he married Adah Emery Dodge, daughter of Alanson Hamilton Dodge and Adah Hamilton. Their children are: Elizabeth, born December 15, 1886 (deceased); Margaret Hamilton, born January 20, 1888; Robert Hamilton, born July 27, 1889 (deceased); Arthur Arnold, born September 30, 1890; Paul Dudley, born December 30, 1892; Alanson Dodge, born February 25, 1895; and Charlotte, born September 13, 1900 (deceased). He was the author of numerous articles published in papers and learned magazines. He was a member of Astronomical and Astro-physical Society of America, and Fellow in the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

CORNELIUS CLARKSON VERMEULE.

East Orange, N. J.

Son of Adrian Vermeule, builder, farmer, and mercant, and of Maria Veghte. His ancestors were refugees from Antwerp to Zeeland in the religious wars of the sixteenth century. Adrian Vermeule, the first American settler, was "voorleser" of the Harlem and Bergen Reformed Churches, 1699-1735. From 1567 until the American Revolution, eight generations of his ancestors fought for their rights and liberties against Spaniards, French, and English. He was born September 5, 1858, at New Brunswick, N. J. He was prepared for college at the Rutgers Preparatory School. In college he maintained a high scholarship and won the Bowser prize for the best thesis at graduation. He was also editor of the Targum. Since graduation he has resided at New Brunswick, 1878-88; New York City, 1888-97, and East Orange from 1897 to the present time. He was topographer in charge of the geological survey of New Jersey, 1878-88, and consulting engineer to the present time. He has been constructing or consulting engineer for many cities and private corporations in the United States and Cuba from 1888 to the present, Topographer of the United States Geological Survey, 1884-88, and consulting engineer of the Department of Public Works, Cuba, 1884-1911. He received the degree of Civil Engineer from Rutgers College in 1880. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and in politics is an Independent. His avocations are historical research and practical civic improvements. On June 7, 1888, he married, at New York City, Caroline Carpenter Reed, daughter of Horatio Blake Reed, Colonel of the 5th Artillery, U. S. A., and 22d Cavalry, U. S. A., and of Alida Carpenter. Their children are: Cornelius Clarkson, Jr., born September 26, 1895, and Warren Carpenter, born October 10, 1898. Two great-uncles graduated from Rutgers, Cornelius C. Vermeule in 1812, and Frederick Vermeule in 1814. He is the author of many monographs and technical articles, covering a wide range of subjects relating to topography, water supply, water power, drainage, and other engineering problems.

SEYMOUR MORTON LARY.

He entered college in 1874, but remained only one year, leaving in 1875. He was a member of the Chi Phi Fraternity. After leaving college he attended Packard's Business College in New York City, and the Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City, N. J. In 1885 he was the proprietor of the New York and Paterson Express Line.

JOHN PERRINE MAYNARD.

After leaving college he took up mercantile pursuits. His present address is unknown.

OSCAR HARTWELL MAYNARD.

He entered college in 1874, but left before graduation. While in college he was a member of the college baseball team and was also on the college football team.

JOSEPH HEPBURN PARSONS.

Talledega, Ala.

Son of Lewis Eliphalet Parsons, a lawyer, Provisional Governor of Alabama in 1865, Speaker in the House of Representatives of Alabama, and United States District Attorney, and of Jane Crisman. His paternal ancestors were English, residing in New England. Related to this branch of the family were Theophilus Parsons, Jonathan Edwards, and Aaron Burr. His mother's ancestors were Scotch-Irish. His maternal great-grandfather, Colonel McDowell, commanded a regiment at the battle of Kings Mountain in the Revolution. He was born February 10, 1854, at Talledega, Alabama, and was prepared for college at the local schools of that place. He entered college in 1874, remaining only about one year. During that time he was captain of the class crew. From Rutgers he went to West Point for a short time, and in 1877 went to Columbia Law College, graduating in 1879 with the degree of B.A. He took a post-graduate course at Columbia, receiving the degree of M.A. in 1881. In July, 1881, he was admitted to the Bar in Washington, D. C. From 1883 to 1887 he resided in Dakota, where he was a member of the Federal and State Bars of Dakota. From 1887 to the present time he has resided in Talledega, Alabama. He is a member of the Federal and State Bars of Alabama. In politics he is a Republican. He is unmarried. He is the author of numerous newspaper and magazine articles, chiefly on political issues and industrial development, and also of a book, published in 1914, entitled "Historical Papers Upon Men and Events of Rare Interest in the Napoleonic Epoch."

CHARLES ARTHUR REED.

Plainfield, N. J.

Son of Hugh Burgess Reed, a merchant, and Colonel of the 44th Indian Volunteers, and of Anne E. Thompson. He was born December 4, 1857, at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and resided later at Neshanic and Raritan, N. J. He was prepared for college in the Rutgers Preparatory School. He is a member of the Zeta Psi Fraternity. After one year he left college to study law in the office of John D. Bartine, Somerville, N. J., and later in the Columbia College Law School. He was admitted to the New Jersey Bar in June, 1882, as attorney, and in February, 1888, as counsellor, and to the Pennsylvania Bar in 1883. Since leaving college he has resided in Raritan, 1875-87; North Plainfield, 1887-1906, and in Plainfield from 1906 to the present time. Besides maintaining a large legal practice, he has served in the State Assembly, 1896, as State Senator, 1897-1902, and was president of the Senate in 1899. He has held various offices in professional and social organizations. He is a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and is a Republican. His favorite sport is golf. On October 4, 1887, he married, at Somerville, N. J., Katharine Longstreet Clark, daughter of Alvah A. Clark and Anna M. Vanderbeck. Their children are: Arthur C., born in 1888; Madeline, born in 1890; and Hugh Burgess, born in 1898. His brother, Louis T. Reed, was a member of the class of 1880 in Rutgers.

GEORGE FIELD RIGGS.

Carlisle, Pa.

Son of George Smith Riggs and Caroline Matilda Field. His paternal great-grandfather was Quartermaster General of the Maryland Militia in the War of 1812, and his maternal great-grandfather, Samuel Osgood, was a member of the Continental Congress, and first Postmaster General of the United States. He was born on Staten Island, N. Y., October 30, 1853. He later resided in Baltimore, Md., Peekskill, Poughkeepsie, and at St. John's School, Ossining, N. Y. He lived for a time in England, France, and Switzerland. He was prepared for college in Poughkeepsie, and at St. John's School, Ossining. Before entering college he made a voyage around the world in a sailing ship. He entered college in 1874, but left after one year to enter the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, from which institution he graduated with the degree of B.S. in 1879. He has held many civil engineering positions in locating and constructing railroads, in municipal surveys, inland waterways, and in United States river and harbor work. He is a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and is a Democrat. On June 6, 1908, he married, at Portsmouth, Va., Elizabeth Nash Hatton, daughter of E. A. Hatton. They have no children.

LOUIS V. SNYDER.

Died January 30, 1882.

He was born in 1857. While in college he was prominent in athletics, being a member of the football and baseball teams and the crew of the college, and the captain of the baseball team during one year. He was a director of the Targum Association and a member of the Chi Phi Fraternity. After leaving college he entered upon a business career. He died at Elizabeth, N. J., on January 30, 1882.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

0 028 333 990 7